Description

Rebecca Hansson

Writer, researcher, showrunner, voice actor

Rebecca is the unhinged writer, having not a single serious bone in her body. Here to drag ancient texts and be dramatic.

By day, she is a kindergarten teacher. Because children are tiny creative humans who have not yet stopped being really, really weird.

You can also hear her voice acting in Super Suits, PSST and Before the Tone.

Tommy Holmberg

Writer, producer, audio wizard

Tommy is the sensible writer, keeping the main story together and sniffing out plot holes. Here to edit audio into oblivion.

By day, he is an electrical engineer and programmer. He enjoys picking things apart to see how they work, as well as programming everything from apps to little self-balancing robots. He hoards exciting audio plugins like a dragon.
